Appalachian Quilts

Liz Schneiders, presiding

Thirteen members and two guests were present.

Treasury: $1,113 / Fran LaSalle, Treasurer

Lisa said the Clark State exhibit will come down March 4. Quilts can be picked up at Appalachian Quilts. If you want to pick up your quilt at Clark State when it is taken down, please contact Lisa to find out what time to be there.

Lisa will be contacting the Golden Paint representative to put on a two-hour, free demonstration of Golden products on a Saturday and at a location to be determined.

Lisa also requested that a person volunteer to coordinate future programs.

Fran LaSalle has scheduled the Glen Helen exhibit for October through November 15, 2010. The requirement for this show is that anything hung must be for sale. Glen Helen takes a 30% commission. The theme can be anything you want.

Discussion continues regarding the photo project wherein photos will be segmented and interpreted into quilts. The photos will be recognizable Dayton landmarks. The intention is to get local professional photographers to participate by submitting their photos.

There was discussion of adding a FaceBook feature to our online site. Mindy said she would integrate it into the web site which she produces.

We need volunteers for Second Vice President and also for Secretary. Nominations are sought for May with voting in June.

Program: Vicky Polis representing Superior Threads demonstrated a product that produces a smocking effect when it is sewn to the back of fabric and then steam is applied. The product is available at Appalachian Quilts.

We had a wonderful display of show and tell projects

The following are the challenge concepts:

March 2010 – Flowers

May 2010 – Stringy
July 2010 – Puzzle
September 2010 – Cone flowers / skewed
