Creative Quilters Guild would like MVAQN members to present a program at one of their meetings in 2020. A stipend will be paid as a donation to MVAQN. The subject of the presentation could be on the 19th amendment quilts. Ann will contact Creative Quilters and get a firm date and then we can determine who will participate.

The Senior Center in Yellow Springs is interested in having some sort of fiber exhibit in a year's time. When they do, the exhibit will be up for three months.

We may consider a discussion on changing the by-laws in regard to how long a former President has to wait to be on the board again.

Other:

Yellow Spring Arts Council Members show is up through March 10, 2019.

Molinda, Chris Z, and Ronnie have quilts in the show.

Check It Out:

Former member Ron Lundquist is having serious health problems and needs a place to sell and/or store his quilts. Janet offered to have a show at the First Baptist Church.

TIP: for a neutral, try using gray thread for hand piecing.

Silk thread is good for applique.

PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE: Make any size you want; add from your own stash if you like; use as much or as little from the bag as you need; what you don't use from the bag, return to Harriet. These snippets are used to make pillows for the animal shelter.
